FATHER POINT, Monday, Aug. 27, 1860.

The steamer Nova Scotian, from Liverpool August 16th, via London, arrived on the evening of August 17th, has passed this point, bound to Quebec.

The steamer Bremen, from New-York, arrived at Southampton on the 17th inst.

LATEST VIA LONDON, DERRY.

The Paris correspondent of the Allgemeine Zeitung, of the 10th inst., says that the Pope has written a very melancholy letter to the Cardinal in France. He looks upon all as lost, and, although convinced that he will die by the bullet of an assassin, he declares that he will quit Rome under no circumstances and for no price.

COSTA MESSINA, Aug. 11.—Advices from Damascus of the 5th inst. state that Foad Pasha had surrounded Lebanon with troops, and threatened with the sword the Druze sheiks if they did not surrender in two days. Twenty sheiks had already been taken, and nearly 500 of the most important were in the hands of the Druze. The Druze had plundered property had also been recovered.

The Sultan visited the Porte on Thursday, and delivered a speech to the Ministers, expressing a resolution to punish the Syrian offenders most severely, and also an intention of reducing the list of secular high functionaries, and of effecting economy generally. Paper money is to remain in circulation until July next.

The Sultan is about to address another autograph letter to Queen Victoria and the Emperor Napoleon on the subject of Syria, in which he will express a desire to have the sole punishment of the offenders.

The news of the massacre of Balbec is confirmed. No details are given as yet.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The Times city article of Thursday evening says:

"Disappointment in the expectation of a change in the weather, and threatened political uncertainties, have led to a further decline in the English funds. American Securities show greater firmness, owing to the anticipation of an active business in breadstuffs. No gold was taken from the Bank to-day."

The Times has been requested to coadjut the statement that Dr. Vaughan, formerly appointed to the Chancellorship of the Exchequer, had been appointed to the Select Committee of the House of Commons have issued a report stating that at the condition of the laws regulating the national intercourse with France, Spain, Portugal, and the United States, is most unsatisfactory.

During the last three years, the British merchant shipping trade has been in a state of great depression. In the struggle and competition to which British ship owners are now exposed by foreigners, they view with the greatest jealousy the restriction still imposed by foreign powers on our shipping. In the home, and foreign trade, the rate of freight is especially, has been for a long time wholly unremunerative. The report concludes with a hope that the recommendations of the Committee will receive the earliest attention of the Government.

The Pike's Peak Express.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Monday, Aug. 27, 1860.

The Pike's Peak Express arrived this morning, with Denver City dates to the 21st inst.

A subscription is being raised for extending the telegraph from Fort Kearney to Denver, with a good prospect of raising the requisite amount.

The excitement is increasing in regard to the recently discovered silver lodes near Tarryall and Breckenridge. The ore assays from $200 to $1,700 to the ton. Thousands of claims have been taken, and many are stampeding from the gold diggings to the silver mines.

The California Gold continues to pay richly, and the miners are realizing sums from nothing to $50 to the ton.

The weather is cold in the southern mines, and there has been a light fall of snow in the Gregory Diggins.

Some owners, discouraged in quartz mines are selling out at below cost, but the general feeling is one of increasing confidence in the success of the industry.

In Denver City business is reviving, and many of the merchants are starting for the river to purchase their winter stock. Some disappointed emigrants are also gone.

From $40,000 to $50,000 in dust per week is now being levied for the river, mostly in private hands, while the Government is receiving and coming about $20,000 per day.

Many substantial brick buildings are going up.

Falling of a Church at Bristol, R. I.

BRISTOL, Monday, Aug. 27, 1860.

At 4½ o'clock this morning, the roof and rear wall of the Episcopal Church, in course of erection, fell with a great noise. The end and side walls are considerably damaged. Cause, defective columns. No one was injured.

The Prince of Wales.

MONTREAL, Monday, Aug. 27, 1860.

The announcement has to-day been given that the Prince will sail for England from Portland instead of Boston or New York. As a great many reasons are erroneously assigned for this decision, and as some of the representatives of the City of New-York in this city appear chagrined that the metropolis has not been chosen for the point of departure, I may say that the only cause for this unexpected selection is the apprehension of desertions in case of the squadron visiting a larger place. From the ships of the regular North American squadron heavy desertions would be certain. There is no special fear on account of the vessels immediately accompanying the Prince, as they would be on their way home. But it has not been deemed expedient to divide the squadron; and in any event it has hitherto been intended that Boston, and not New York, should be the point of final departure.

To the Associated Press.

MONTREAL, Monday, Aug. 27, 1860.

The illumination on Saturday night was very successful. The Prince drove through the town incognito, and attended Divine Service at the Anglican Cathedral yesterday. He was met at the entrance by the Clergy. The building was crowded but the arrangements were good. The sermon was by the Bishop of Montreal.

This morning the Indians came off at the cricket grounds. The Prince arrived at 10 o'clock. The first match was at Lacrosse between two parties of Indians, and the second between Indians and whites, in which the former won. This was followed by a war dance in full costume. The Prince was much amused.

There were several thousand spectators, including the Queen's Footers, whose band played "God Save the Queen," the men answering, and then "Yankee Doodle," the Prince uncovers.

The games were interrupted by a heavy shower of rain.

The levee commences at the Court-House at noon. A ball has been tendered by the New York delegation to the Prince of Wales and accepted. It will take place on Friday evening, Oct. 12. In consequence of engagements already existing, the Prince has been only expected on Friday, Saturday and Sunday in New-York.

He will be back from Portland.

The following is a copy of the address:

"His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales: May it please your Royal Highness: On behalf of the citizens of New-York, we have the honor to request your visit to our city, at such time as may suit your convenience."

We hope that in view of the deep and universal admiration felt throughout our land for the public and private virtues of your royal mother, and for the high respect entertained for yourself, as the heir to the throne of Great Britain, you will graciously condescend to visit our city, at such time as may suit your convenience."

The Prince's Levee was numerously attended. Several addresses were presented. It is settled that the Prince open the exhibition at Hamilton, Wednesday week, and leaves the same evening for Chicago, where he remains one day; thence by the way of the Pacific to St. Louis, Chicago, and New-York, and thence to Philadelphia, New-York, Boston and Portland. It has been arranged that the Prince accept the ball at New-York, instead of a dinner.

POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE.

MINNESOTA.

ST. ANTHONY'S FALLS, Minnesota, Aug. 29, 1860.

The first Republican State Convention in Minnesota since the nominations at Chicago, was held at St. Paul on Wednesday last. The attendance was unexpectedly large, nearly every county in the State being fully represented. One delegate evinced his true devotion to the cause by walking nearly two hundred miles in order to be present, and when the fact was announced it was received with loud cheers. The utmost harmony and good feeling prevailed throughout the proceedings of the Convention. A strong Electoral and a good State ticket were nominated. Our present faithful and able representatives in Congress, Messrs. Aldrich and Windom, received a unanimous and cordial nomination for a second term.

The feeling for them was so earnest, that as soon as the nominations were made business was suspended, and they were brought into the large building amid the most enthusiastic shouts and cheering. Each responded in a brief but pertinent speech, and as they both run on a ticket voted throughout the State, they will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

The belief exists, and justly, too, that they were constant in their attendance upon duty, at Washington, and that they were especially true to our favorite "Homestead measure," and hence the enthusiasm for them. Senator Wilkinson, for his course on this measure, so vital to the interests of the West, and in fact, when properly viewed, to the whole country, was heartily in veneration.

In no quarter of the country are the conduct and actions of our public servants in Congress regarded with closer scrutiny than by the people of Minnesota. It is not meant to send representatives to the national capital as a mere compliment, or as a reward for the rendition of any particular partisan services, but for the reason that the most important duties are for them to perform, not only for our own State, but the whole country; and that when they get there, we look for them to fulfill their obligations. If they forget our interests when surrounded by all the blandishments attendant at the Federal capital, many hundreds of miles from us, they may as well have been sent to the national capital for the purpose of calling the ballot-box into use. That identical law is a most potent regulator, and it is well for those who depend upon it for positions of vast political importance, to keep it within the bounds of their vision. Such has been the wise caution exercised with our Congressmen, and for this they will be triumphantly sustained.

Among other gratifying circumstances connected with the Convention was the unanimous passage of a resolution strongly approving of the administration and public course of Gov. Alexander Ramsey. The Republican Party in this State, by the change of the State of Minnesota, has found in him one of its firmest and ablest champions. Early identified with the organization and settlement of the State, coming in the spirit of no mere temporary adventurer, but from the start taking up his position with the full understanding that he would remain there, he has by his conduct and his new country is destined to undergo, he has acquired a strong hold upon the public confidence, and wields a most decided influence. All his acts are marked by that strong common sense for which he is not a man among those who know him best. We had a test of his determination to stand by his principles, and he has shown that he is not a man who can be easily swayed by the passions of the moment.

The Republican Party in this State, by the change of the State of Minnesota, has found in him one of its firmest and ablest champions. Early identified with the organization and settlement of the State, coming in the spirit of no mere temporary adventurer, but from the start taking up his position with the full understanding that he would remain there, he has by his conduct and his new country is destined to undergo, he has acquired a strong hold upon the public confidence, and wields a most decided influence. All his acts are marked by that strong common sense for which he is not a man among those who know him best. We had a test of his determination to stand by his principles, and he has shown that he is not a man who can be easily swayed by the passions of the moment.

Among other gratifying circumstances connected with the Convention was the unanimous passage of a resolution strongly approving of the administration and public course of Gov. Alexander Ramsey.
